

Johns Hopkins Greenberg Bladder Cancer Institute

2025 GRAND ROUNDS SCHEDULE

JOHNS HOPKINS
MEDICINE

January 28 | 4 PM - 5 PM

Sleep Tight: The Vital Role of Sleep for Cancer Patients

Join Charlene Gamaldo, MD, Professor of Neurology, to hear how sleep plays a vital healing role for cancer patients.

February 18 | 4 PM - 5 PM

Can Less be More? Bladder Cancer Surveillance and the Future: Fewer Cystoscopies vs. Urine Biomarkers

Join GBCI Director, David McConkey, PhD and Zhuo Tony Su, M.D., to hear important updates on the future of bladder cancer focused on fewer cystoscopies and more urine biomarkers.

March 18 | 4 PM - 5 PM

UTUC is Having its Moment: Updates, Progress & Recognition of UTUC as its Own Unique Disease

Join Nirmish Singla, MD, MSC, Associate Professor of Urology and Oncology to learn more about updates, progress, and recognition of UTUC as its own unique disease.

April 15 | 4 PM - 5 PM

Bladder Cancer in Dogs: Comparative Oncology and the Human-Canine Connection

Join GBCI Deputy Director, Noah Hahn, MD for a discussion about Bladder Cancer in dogs and how it compares to standard oncology treatment plans and discovery for people.

May 20 | 4 PM - 5 PM

What's Up with BCG & Other Treatment Options?

Join Max Kates, MD, Associate Professor of Urology, to learn about BCG treatments, supply challenges and alternative options.

For questions, please reach out to bladdercancer@jhmi.edu

Click here to register now!