

Honor Code

The honor code, developed by the medical student body, introduced in September 1991, is as follows:

As a student at The Johns Hopkins School of Medicine, I pledge:

To do my own work and be honest in my interactions with peers, faculty, and staff. This applies to my work on examinations, assignments, and papers as well as work in the laboratory.

To uphold the high standard of conduct in patient care which has always been maintained by the Johns Hopkins medical community.

To base my interactions with other students on mutual respect and cooperation.

To act on infractions of the honor code, and to maintain the confidentiality of all parties involved.

To encourage my peers to uphold this honor code.

Upon matriculation every student is required to sign that they have read the Honor Code. It is the expectation that every student live by this Honor Code.
